Thoughts for Father's Day

A careful man I ought to be; a little fellow follows me;

I do not dare to go astray, for fear he'll go the self-same way.

I cannot once escape his eyes; whate'er he sees me do, he tries —

Like me, he says, he's going to be, the little chap who follows me.

He thinks that I am good and fine, believes in every word of mine:

The base in me he must not see, the little chap who follows me.

I must remember as I go, through summer's sun and winter's snow, I'm building for the years to be, for a little fellow follows me.

Sunday,
June 15th

Ladies, it's time to fete the men in our lives. We will be providing brunch on Father's Day after worship service. Everyone is welcome to contribute to the meal. Please let Janice, Nancy or Lou know if you plan to bring anything or would like to be part of the serving team.

The joy of generosity

He who has received much should also give much. It is essential to give a goodly part of what God has allowed us to accumulate. Otherwise greed and miserliness will seize our hearts and minds. Furthermore, by not giving generously, we will miss the many joys that generosity brings to us. Let us not cheat ourselves of those blessings.

The first day of vacation Bible school

One summer afternoon, a grandfather picked up his 4-year-old grandson at church. “Well, Jason, how did you like your first day of vacation Bible school?”

“It was great!” the boy replied. “We heard some stories and drew some pictures. Then we went out to play, and when we came back in God had juice and cookies waiting for us!”

What is a father?

Being a male species does not make a man a father, for a dad is a special blend of hero; disciplinarian; a friend; someone to look up to; someone to model ... someone with a touch of the “mother” in him; someone who is big enough to say, “The fault was mine” ...

someone who lives the kind of life that makes you want to say, “I, too, shall follow him!”

Bible Quiz

Who said to the prophet Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD”?

- A. Reuben, for selling Joseph into slavery
- B. Jacob, for deceiving Isaac and stealing his brother's birthright
- C. Rahab, a prostitute
- D. David, considered Israel's greatest king

Answer: D (See 2 Samuel 12:13.)

Constant and unchanging

Summer's arrival feels positive to many people but may not be smooth for all. Families who rely on regular school meals for their children must stretch grocery dollars further. Heat poses risks for elderly people who lack air conditioning. Work can be difficult to find in the summer months, and uncertainty looms for recent graduates. Meanwhile, concerns such as wars, natural disasters and health problems don't take a summer break.

St. Teresa of Avila (1515–1582) prayed, "May you be blessed forever, Lord, for being constant and unchanging, amidst all the changes of the world." Her prayer is as appropriate today as nearly 500 years ago. When all around us is unstable and unreliable, God's love and faithfulness are constant and trustworthy.

Handling grief

When a Southern Christian woman became a widow, several people asked what she was going to do. She always answered by saying, "I'm going to do Proverbs 3:5-6 and Philippians 4:4-7."

Both passages provide wonderful doses of strength and encouragement. (If you aren't familiar with the verses, look them up to see for yourself.) When we completely trust in God for guidance and peace, he not only sees us through difficult times but allows us to rejoice rather than worry.

PUZZLE

FATHERS OF FAITH

Fathers do amazing things for their families, but the greatest gift our dads can share with us is their faith in God.
Complete this puzzle to read Isaiah's advice to fathers.

Directions: Working left to right, first write down all the 1's in the word blanks.
Continue with the 2's and finally the 3's.

1 The	2 as	3 tell	1 living
2 I	3 their	1 the	2 am
3 children	1 living	2 doing	3 about
1 they	2 today	3 your	1 praise
2 parents	3 faithfulness	1 you

Isaiah 38:19, NIV

Are you listening?

A father asked his 7-year-old son to say the mealtime prayer. "All right," the boy said. "Let's pray."

When every head was bowed, the boy prayed, "Lord, we thank you for the pancakes we're going to eat tonight. Amen."

"Jimmy," his mother said. "I think you should know we're having chicken, not pancakes, tonight."

"I know," Jimmy answered. "I just wanted to see if God was paying attention."

Christian symbol

RIVER — In the Bible, rivers (and other bodies of water) often represent deliverance, salvation, freedom and cleansing. The Jordan River is especially prominent: The Israelites crossed it to enter the Promised Land after God delivered them from slavery, and John baptized Jesus (and many other people) there.

The image of crossing the Jordan River has long been a metaphor for death — crossing from earthly to heavenly life, from worldly struggles to the bliss of God's kingdom, from physical ailments to the wholeness of a resurrection body.

Dear Mayflower Church Family,

Grace Place needs our help to support their annual Backpack Event. Mayflower church has always helped provide as many backpacks as we can with your kind and generous support.

Some flyers have been placed on the credenza in the entrance way near the Church Office and also on the table in the Narthex detailing the different grades backpack shopping lists.

Members can help by purchasing a backpack and filling it up or you can send a donation by check (please make check out to Mayflower UCC and write Backpack on the memo line) or donate cash in an envelope labeled with "Backpack", your Missions team will be glad to help shop for you.

We do need donations to shop ASAP so please bring to church by June 8th or June 15th Sunday service or drop off at Mayflower office to Judy.

If you decide to purchase your own backpack(s) and fill with supplies, please deliver to Mayflower Church by no later than July 9th. The Missions team will deliver the backpacks to Grace Place.

June 2025 Thrivent Events

JUNE 5, 2025 | 2:00 PM – 3:00 PM ET

The Generous Life

How do we know if we're truly generous? For most of us, we want to be known as someone who lived a generous life. We don't want money and possessions to guide our decisions. From big gifts to small gifts, from teenagers to multi-millionaires, God wants us all to live generously. Through Pastor Rob's lived experience in ministry, you will see that God's faithfulness can take the most unlikely story and launch a movement of generosity.
